

Guam Memorial Hospital

850 Gov. Carlos Camacho Road
Oka, Tamuning, GU 96913

Phone: 671-647-2206

Fax: 671-649-0145

E-mail:

danielle.manglona@gmha.org

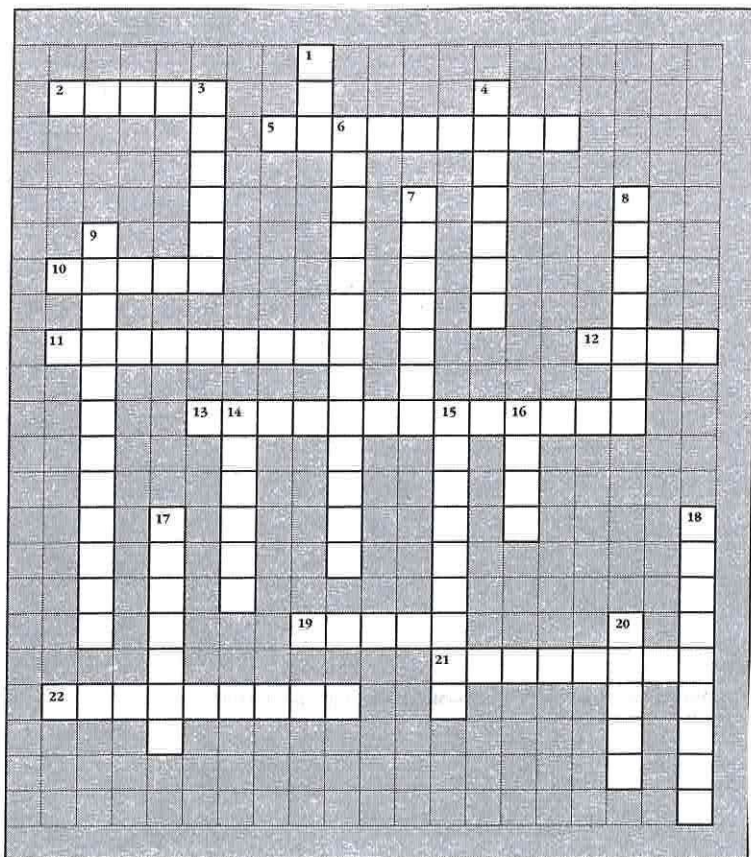

JC Update newsletter is on the Web!

Log on to <http://www.gmha.org>

Improving the Safety and Quality of Patient Care...Together We Can

Submit this page to WIN!
See page 2 for details...

Joint Commission Crossword Challenge

Across:

- The best way to prevent infections is to wash _____.
- Staff use _____ as a last resort or in an emergency.
- Staff must use observable criteria to identify potential causes of _____.
- The universal protocol applies to every high risk invasive _____.
- Every patient must be assessed for _____.
- The national _____ goals are designed to reduce risk in healthcare organizations.
- The former abbreviation for the organization that will survey GMH is _____.
- We are required to _____ all verbal orders.
- The _____ management plan is put into effect when we have a sudden influx of injured patients.

Down:

- All staff who come in contact with patients must be able to demonstrate _____ specific competency.
- All medication must be _____ when not under staff surveillance.
- Active communication that occurs just prior to an invasive procedure is called _____.
- An unexpected death or significant loss of function is called a _____.
- An explanation of the risks and benefits of a treatment or procedures with significant risk is given to allow the patient to give _____.
- Both visual and auditory _____ must be maintained at all times.
- QD is considered a dangerous _____ and should not be used.
- Within the first 24 hours of a hospital stay, we must _____ each patient.
- The visitors from the Joint Commission prefer to be called _____, not inspectors.
- Every unit must participate in _____ drills.
- Knowledge-based information can be found online or in the _____.
- The verification process prior to performance of invasive procedures is usually accomplished through the use of a _____.
- The time to report a critical _____ to a responsible caregiver should be measured.