GMHA's Dr. Nam T. Vo Named Guam Pharmacist of the Year

(Tuesday, December 23, 2025; Tamuning, Guam) The Guam Memorial Hospital Authority (GMHA) proudly announces that Dr. Nam T. Vo, PharmD, has been named Guam Pharmacist of the Year by the Guam Pharmacists Association, recognizing his exceptional leadership, dedication to patient safety, and outstanding contributions to the island's healthcare community.

"Dr. Vo is a shining example of the clinical excellence and compassionate leadership that strengthen GMHA," said GMHA Interim CEO and Administrator Dr. Joleen M. Aguon. "His dedication to patient safety and his unwavering service to our community reflect the very best of our hospital. We are incredibly proud of him and celebrate this well-earned recognition."

Dr. Vo, who has served GMHA since early 2016, has spent nearly a decade advancing pharmacy practice within the hospital and across Guam. His work spans medication safety, interdisciplinary collaboration, critical care support, pharmacy education, and workflow innovation. Colleagues describe him as a humble, steady, and transformative clinician whose influence has elevated the standard of care throughout GMHA.

Kwonil Jung, Acting Chief Clinical Pharmacist and Dr. Vo's supervisor, praised the honor, stating, "Nam's recognition as Pharmacist of the Year reflects the kind of pharmacist he is every day — friendly, dependable, and committed to doing what is right for patients. He leads by example through his work ethic, attitude, and willingness to step in when others need support. His impact is felt not only in patient care, but across the pharmacy team, and this recognition is truly well deserved."

The Guam Pharmacist of the Year Award honors individuals who demonstrate exceptional professional achievement, innovation in pharmacy practice, commitment to medication safety, and service to the community.

In accepting the award, Dr. Vo shared, "I am deeply honored to be named Guam's Pharmacist of the Year. This recognition reflects the work we do together for our community. To my colleagues at GMHA, thank you for your teamwork, support, and the compassion you show our patients every day. I am grateful to my mom for her love and sacrifices, and I thank God for guiding my steps and giving me strength. My hope is that this award inspires future pharmacists to lead with integrity, serve with heart, and continue uplifting the health of our island. Si Yu'os Ma'åse."

Governor Lou Leon Guerrero praised Dr. Vo's achievement, stating, "Dr. Vo represents the best of Guam's healthcare workforce. His commitment to patient safety, his leadership in pharmacy practice, and his service to our community are truly exemplary. This award reflects not only his expertise, but the heart he brings to caring for our people."

Lieutenant Governor Josh Tenorio added, "Dr. Vo's work makes a real difference in the lives of patients and in the strength of our hospital system. His professionalism and compassion reflect the high standard of care our community deserves. We congratulate him and thank him for his continued dedication to our island."

GMHA congratulates Dr. Vo on this tremendous honor and celebrates his continued contributions to advancing healthcare for Guam.
